

FLAGSTAFF HIGH SCHOOL GRAPHIC DESIGN

Hello, my name is Kayley Quick and welcome to Graphic Design! I'm excited to be starting my 8th year as a teacher! I consider myself to be a woman of many trades. Currently, I operate a graphic design business that includes sign painting, murals and graphic work. I am a working painter and often have pieces up for display at various sites around town.

OBJECTIVES

To help students grow as holistic creative designers, develop personal design styles, begin a design portfolio and develop soft skills to help them succeed in their future work environments.

COURSE TOPICS

Graphic Communications | Adobe Illustrator | File Types Elements and Principles | Composition | Layout | Typography Color | The Creative Process | Target Audiences | Copyright Critique | Portfolios | Variety of Design Projects in Illustrator

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This class will feature a few mini-field trips to the downtown area to evaluate and critique local designs/logos/signs, etc. An emergency contact number is requested on the signature form. Please fill that out and return it to me.

This class also will feature clips and excerpts of videos and films that are above the PG rating. Videos will only be played that are directly relevant to the curriculum being taught in class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Integrity of scholarship is essential for an academic community. Flagstaff High School expects that students will honor this principle and in so doing protect the validity of Flagstaff High Schools intellectual work. For students, this means that all academic work will be done by the individual to whom it is assigned, without unauthorized aid of any kind.

EVALUATION

The course grade will be an average of these grades;

- Bellwork
- Participation
- Quizzes
- Projects/Activities
